Customer Reviews

What a wonderful book! It is easy to read and follow with amazing photography throughout. It is an educational book for those talented readers who will follow the instructions and be able to produce the delightful finished pieces, but it is also a book full of art and creativity. Val has used her imagination and talent to use colour and texture in exciting ways, drawing in history and fiction alike. The colours and the beauty of the finished products are a pleasure to see as you work your way through this enchanting book, learning not about felting and the textures of fabrics, but also showing us that creativity is within all of us. The lovely touch of added quotations of Val's own experiences and her joy in nature make this a book to treasure.

Currently reading this book. I am new to felting and looking for inspiration and ideas.

Love this book and the inspirational ideas!
