Customer Reviews

I got this as a present from my friend whose family grew up in Hawaii. I LOVE this cookbook! I actually lost it but I bought another at a bookstore because I couldn't go without it. I have many cookbooks but this is the one that I use the most. I have made almost all of the chicken dishes. The wing recipes are fantastic! I refuse to eat at any of the suburban chain wing restaurants because they lack flavor compared to these. The recipes are very easy and I found all of the ingredients at a grocery store or asian store. Because I love it so much, I'm about to order her other cookbook "Best Local Dishes"!

Real island style recipes with simple island style directions. A taste of home. Spiral binding lets the book stay open to the page you want, as a cookbook should!

This Cookbook is okay but not the best representation of local cooking. I tried a couple of the recipes but didn't like it. Will try a bit more before I decide to donate it.

The recipes were easy to prepare and the ingredients were easy to find in the stores as well. I love the colorful presentation of the dishes.

Jean Wantanabe knows her stuff when it comes to Hawaiian recipes for sure. Best hawaiian cookbooks ever! Five stars for sure!

I have another cookbook by Jean and just love it!
